

MISSION

Developing the next generation of servant leaders by encouraging strong, healthy youth. Empowering them for service to each other and to their community.

YOUTH LEADERSHIP SPOKANE

WHO WE ARE:

Youth Leadership Spokane, established in 1996, is a 10-month civic leadership training program, based on the principles of servant leadership. YLS and the YMCA have partnered to focus on developing the next generation of servant leaders and empowering youth for service to each other and their community!

BENEFITS:

You will build skills in communication, team building and interviewing.

Have opportunities to mentor and be mentored and work cross-generational.

Be able to put your new skills into practice with service projects.

Understand and refine your unique role as a servant leader in this community with hands-on experiences.
