Fall Into Creative Dramatics

Ages K-2

October 19 - 23

Daily, 9:00AM - 12:00PM

Creative Dramatics is an exploration of theatre centering around imaginative expression, using elements of improvisation, movement, dramatizing stories, and group play. This week-long day camp will explore fall stories and themes, incorporating crafts and activities that will complement our dramatic adventures.

fall into theatre!

This Fall we are offering a week-long camp format from October 19-23 for SPS students on break or students who are on flexible schedules, (i.e. homeschool or flexible learning environments). The following week our traditional four week after school class session begins! Camps and classes will have a short showcase/open house at the end of the final day.
